“ Ben was my brother in law by marriage for 38 years. He was a good man, respectful and respected. May people who don't believe that COVID-19 is as serious as death find a lesson in the suffering from which his passing was a blessed release.

Rest is peace, Ben.

Ben had a way of lighting up a room with his smile. He loved holidays, especially Christmas. His sense of humor was really great. My favorite memory is when he used stick-on ribbons from Christmas presents to decorate his head! He was and forever in my memory will be a "big kid" who love his family. Rest In Peace Ben.
