

Mrs. Janet Louise King

December 29, 1953 - November 1, 2025

Mrs. Janet Louise King, age 71, of Grant, Alabama departed this life on Saturday, November 1, 2025, leaving behind a legacy of love, friendship, and cherished memories.

Born on December 29, 1953, in Niagara Falls, New York, Janet was the devoted daughter of Muriel Andrews and the late Howard Andrews, and the loving sister to Darryl Andrews and Jennie Andrews Grimm.

After a dedicated career, Janet retired from the Chrysler Corporation. In retirement, she pursued her love for camping alongside her beloved husband, Roger King, who preceded her in death in 2013. Their shared journeys brought them countless joys and forged lasting friendships. Janet and Roger found not just fellow travelers at campgrounds, but a chosen family with whom they shared laughter, stories, and unforgettable experiences.

Janet was a beacon of love and support to her family. She is survived by her mother, Muriel Andrews; her brother, Darryl Andrews; her sister, Jennie Andrews Grimm; her loving daughter, Wendy Cunningham; and her precious grandchildren: Jesse Cunningham, Tiffany Jones, Dylan Cunningham, and Halie Cunningham; and treasured great grandchildren, Bentlee Cunningham, Naxton Cunningham, and Emery Cunningham. While she will be deeply missed, her memory will live on in the hearts of all who knew and loved her.

Janet was preceded in death by her husband, Roger King, and her father, Howard Andrews.

Family and friends are invited to celebrate Janet's life at Grant Memorial Chapel on Thursday, November 13, 2025. Visitation will take place from 11 a.m. until 1 p.m., followed by funeral services at 1 p.m. Interment will then follow at Mt. Olive Cemetery in Union Grove.
