“ It is sad for Jane and me to learn of Aunt Mattie's passing. She is the last of the children of John and Ollie McSheridan. It has been many years since we saw her, but we do remember her as we were growing up. We offer our sympathy to her remaining family. Our thoughts and prayers are with you. “ Aunt Mattie was last in our home about a year and a half ago. At about 10:30 a.m. on the first morning of her visit, she said, "I don't smell any turnip greens and cornbread cooking." So, off to the store for turnip greens! It was a good lunch and she enjoyed it. We enjoyed having her. Becky and Gayle
