“ I just found out Roy passed away! Roy was like a brother to me and my husband. We knew Roy for years. I had the privilege to go in a mission trip with him and Monez to New Mexico to serve the Navajo Indians.

Roy held a revival once where we attended church and it lasted 6 weeks! Roy and Monez stayed in our home during that time. That started a friendship vthst turned into family!

Roy was such a joy to be around. I will miss our talks and texts mostly about the Bible. I will see you again. Until then there will be a void in my heart!

“ Roy called me often and we'd talk about life in general and about family. He was never negative about any one of them. He ALWAYS would bring out the best in each person, no matter the circumstances. He would always say, God will take care of it, we just have to trust Him. I love his personality. He ALWAYS wanted to make people laugh and would pull jokes on people just to see them laugh! He was kind hearted and would give you the shirt off his back if you needed it. I love you Roy.... Until Then

“ I was friends with Roy's sister, Tammy. We had a little gospel group together. I think Tammy and I were between 12 and 14 years old. Roy and their Mother was also in the group. We had so much fun singing for the Lord. My fondest memory is when we sang for the Church of God close to where I lived at the time in New Hope. People were on their feet and some were shouting and dancing around. Just last year both Tammy and Roy reached out to me. They found me on Facebook and I am also friends with Tabitha. I will miss chatting with Roy. He always asked about my Mama. He always loved her. I miss all of you and I am praying for each and everyone of you. Life may end down here but love and memories will always remain. When it is our time to fall a sleep in the Lord we will all wake up together and live a day that will last an eternity! God bless you all!

“ Roy and I have some wonderful memories of just the 2 year we were together, we had many plans for the future but God needed him more, and Roy was certainly God's child, and he was the most positive person I ever knew. We knew each other we quiet younger and so Thankful God brought us back together for a short time, He was my bright light and now my guardian Angel, he always told me that his job was to watch over me and protect me on this earth and if he entered Heaven first then I would have a new Guardian Angel and I feel his presence all around me. I love this Godly man with all my heart and soul. I can hardly believe it's true when I wake up I feel like it isn't real. Sweetheart I won't say goodbye but see you later, that's what he would always say. I love you Roy and I will see you a little later.

You chose a good man. He is my husband's first cousin but they were more like a brothers. This has really took a toll on him. We both have had covid and I am still very sick, Jimmy is better but he just can't believe 😞 this. We love you Roy and gonna miss you but we will see you on the The Streets of Gol. Look for me cause I will be there too.

“ My 1st memory of Roy that I can recall was when I was 4 and he was 6 our 1st year of school. We lived in pontiac Michigan across the street from school. The roads were covered with ice and neither could stand on the ice so he took my hand and we scooted on our butts to get to the other side of course mom was standing in the doorway laughing at her 2 little boys. Can't believe so much time has passed since that day. Love you Roy, I'll see you soon
